

CELL NOTES 13/5/08

ICE BREAKER

What are you normally doing at 9.00 a.m. on a Saturday, Sunday, weekday?

THEME

The first sermon.

Reading; Acts 2: 1-14 & 36 - 39

SERMON SUMMARY

- 1) Holmes and Watson story. We can miss the obvious.
- 2) The dramatic events of Pentecost that led to the first sermon.
- 3) Jesus is alive, He is Lord and Christ.
- 4) Who or what pulls the strings in your life? A fear, a person, an ambition?
- 5) Jesus came to be master of our inner lives. Repentance means changing direction, so that He may be so, and to give us freedom to live in that relationship.
- 6) Trust Him (Blondin) and be open about it (Baptism)
- 7) We will receive
 Forgiveness.
 The gift of the Spirit to empower us.

QUESTIONS OF APPLICATION

- 1) Which group of people described in the reading do you most easily relate to?
- 2) When have you been empowered by the Spirit to witness for Jesus?
- 3) Have you ever encountered the gift of tongues used in this way, or another way?
- 4) What has been your experience of repentance and baptism?
- 5) How does Jesus' place as King over all effect your daily life? Is there an area you would like Him to take command over?
